“BON BINI!”

ARUBA WELCOMES YOU

Long stretches of powder-white beaches ringed by glassy, calm seas make Aruba the island vacation you'll want to return to again and again.

Whether you're deep-sea fishing for wahoo or hiking the rugged landscape of Arikok National Park, snorkeling the shallow coral reefs or simply relaxing alongside the turquoise waters, Aruba is the ideal spot for your next getaway. Wake up to the sunrise over the southern Caribbean as the trade winds blow in another perfect day. With temperatures that hover around 80 degrees, low humidity and less than 20 inches of rain a year, this island almost always delivers sunny skies and picture-perfect views.

Leave behind the stresses of everyday life and adjust to island time as you play along miles of powdery sands. Swim with the kids at tranquil Baby Beach, where shallow waters and still seas make the leeward side of the island ideal for splashing about in the surf. Or, venture to the northern edge of Aruba to Palm Beach, where you can relax on white-sand beaches and enjoy moonlit strolls through flowering gardens. From sailing to windsurfing and shipwreck diving to snorkeling with schools of neon-colored fish, there's no shortage of fun to be had.

There are early-morning horseback rides along the beach, birthday celebrations on a Jolly Pirate ship cruise and leisurely walks past the gabled Dutch homes and billowing rainbow-colored sails that dot the harbor. And like the many road signs across the island read, Aruba is the island escape where you are always bon bini, the Papiamentu greeting that assures you are always welcome.
