

July 4 – 5

Reykjavik, Iceland

Start your journey in the world's northernmost capital

Meet fellow travelers, your expert trip leaders and dedicated guest services staff in Reykjavík for a festive welcome. Iceland enjoys 22 hours of sunlight during the summer, allowing plenty of time to explore Reykjavík's modern dining scene and embark on outdoor adventures.

July 6 – 10

Greenland (Luxury Adventure Cruise)

Track the midnight sun on a luxury adventure cruise

There are few places more remote than Greenland, sitting near the top of the world with its unparalleled, wild natural beauty. Gaze upon the ever-evolving landscape of craggy icefjords, freshly formed icebergs and pristine glaciers under a brilliant midnight sun. Relax and take in the beauty from the Ultramarine polar cruise.

July 11

Reykjavik, Iceland

Return to Iceland for an overnight stay required for tour logistics

July 12 – 13

Helsinki, Finland

Bask in the coastal wonder of Helsinki

Situated on the Gulf of Finland, Helsinki is a vibrant city known for its innovative art, white marble architecture and rich culture. Explore the archipelago comprised of over 300 islands and discover why Finland has earned the title of "the World's Happiest Country" for six consecutive years.

July 14

Tallinn, Estonia

Encounter the historic charm of Estonia's capital city

Spend a day entranced by the well-preserved Hanseatic and medieval architecture of Tallinn. Situated on the northern coast along the Gulf of Finland, the idyllic city of Tallinn boasts cobblestone streets and charming alleyways—and is buzzing with quaint cafés and shops.

July 14 – 16

Copenhagen, Denmark

Enjoy the endless activity of a Copenhagen summer

Explore the Danish capital, where Renaissance Europe meets with cutting-edge contemporary design.

July 16

Faroe Islands

Take a day trip to the remote Faroe Islands

The isolated nature of the Faroe Islands means many of the archipelago's natural treasures have remained virtually untouched. Fly to the Faroe Islands aboard the private A321 to spend the day exploring the islands' rugged landscapes, characterized by steep cliffs and narrow fjords—a natural wonderland awaiting discovery. Return to Copenhagen in the evening.

July 17 – 18

Reykjavik, Iceland

Recap your journey among new friends

Return to Reykjavík on the evening of July 17 for a farewell dinner with your fellow travelers. Following a night of rest at your luxurious hotel, return home on your independent flight the following day.
