

October 27

Miami, Florida

Your journey begins in south Florida

Meet fellow travelers, your expert trip leaders and dedicated guest services staff for a festive welcome dinner.

October 28 – 30

Cusco and Machu Picchu, Peru

Peru offers diverse landscapes and a warm, lively culture

In historic Cusco, see how Inca and Spanish cultures intertwine. Travel aboard a private train to Machu Picchu, one of the world's most astonishing archeological treasures. Visit the Inca ruins in Sacsayhuaman.

Alternate Destination

Pisco, Peru

Explore a different side of Peru on the coast

For guests who have already traveled to Machu Picchu or are sensitive to altitude, we have created an alternative filled with wonder and delight. Experience the Pisco area, a land of golden dunes and brilliant blue sea. Guests choosing this alternative fly with the group into Pisco and then transfer under an hour by land to Paracas. They will meet back up with the rest of the group in Pisco before heading to Easter Island.

October 31 – November 1

Easter Island, Chile

Investigate the mystery of the moai on this remote Pacific island

Trace the history of a lost civilization with your archaeologist guides as you explore Rapa Nui National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site where hundreds of moai were abandoned.

November 2

Papeete, Tahiti

Enjoy a quick stop in French Polynesia

Spend an evening in the tropical paradise of Tahiti during an overnight, non-touring logistical stop. Enjoy dinner and your surroundings during your short time here.

November 3 – 5

Great Barrier Reef, Australia

Immerse yourself in Australia's unique flora and fauna

Lose a day crossing the international date line on the way to Australia. The northeast coast of Australia is home to some of the world's most unique natural wonders. You will enjoy staying in a forested riverside hideaway in the Daintree Rainforest as well as have the opportunity to explore the UNESCO World Heritage Great Barrier Reef, the world's largest coral reef system.

November 6 – 8

Angkor Wat, Cambodia

Absorb the majesty of Angkor Wat

The city of Angkor Thom represents ancient urban planning at its best. This "city of temples" incorporates canals, large water reservoirs and, of course, temples, including the famous Angkor Wat, Bayon and Ta Prohm.

November 9 – 10

Taj Mahal, India

Stand in awe of a monumental testament to enduring love

See perhaps the world's most famous building, the Taj Mahal, the white marble mausoleum that took more than 22 years and 20,000 people to build. Learn about the construction of this UNESCO World Heritage site with your guide, as well as the history of the Mughal Empire.

November 11 – 13

Serengeti, Plain, Tanzania

The Serengeti is one of the world's greatest wildlife destinations

Throughout the year, more than one million wildebeest, accompanied by gazelles and zebras, make a circuitous, perilous trek across the Serengeti Plain, seeking out fresh grazing and water. Along the way, they encounter lions, leopards, crocodiles and other carnivores always on the hunt, resulting in a primal spectacle unlike any other. Because this cycle is continuous, the Serengeti is always teeming with a dizzying array of wildlife.

Alternate Destination

Ngorongoro Crater, Tanzania

Seek out the legendary big five in the Ngorongoro Crater

If you'd like to see a different side of Tanzania, opt to visit the Ngorongoro Crater, the largest unbroken caldera in the world. Guests choosing this alternate will travel separately and meet up with the rest of the group before heading to our next destination.

November 14 – 15

Luxor, Egypt

Marvel at the masterpieces of ancient Egypt

Egypt's famed World Heritage sites have captured the imagination for centuries. The colossal temples of Luxor soar above the banks of the Nile River, an astonishing testament to the power of the pharaohs. Trace the legacy of a prolific civilization in this ancient royal capital, often described as the world's finest open-air museum.

November 16

Cairo, Egypt

See two of the world's most emblematic structures

Travelers have been drawn to Egypt for millennia. Uncover the layers of history in Cairo, exploring both the Great Sphinx and the awe-inspiring Pyramids at Giza, still standing after nearly 5,000 years.

November 17 – 18

Marrakech, Morocco

Experience a feast of the senses in the imperial city of Marrakech

Lying in the fertile Haouz plain at the foot of the Atlas Mountains, Marrakech has some of the most impressive examples of Islamic architecture in existence. Perhaps the highlight of Marrakech, Jemaa el-Fna square is the heart of one of the most vibrant and historic medinas in the world. This ancient walled quarter is filled with narrow, maze-like streets crowded with merchants, musicians and entertainers.

November 19 – 20

Miami, Florida

Recap your world journey with new friends

We depart Morocco and fly to Miami, where we will enjoy a dinner at the Four Seasons Hotel Miami. You will return home on your independent flight the next day.
