Day 2 SYDNEY:

After breakfast, meet your guide for a Panoramic Sydney half day city sights tour. On tour you'll visit the historic Rocks area and hear early convict history. Enjoy magnificent views of the Opera House and Harbor Bridge. You'll pass through the shopping heart of the city, QVB, and Center Point. Then visit Sydney's trendy new district Oxford Street, before heading to Paddington with its terrace. Arriving at the Pacific Ocean, enjoy the superb coast cliff walk around Tamarama and Bronte. You'll stop at the famous Bondi Beach and the beachfront promenade to enjoy a coffee, tea or cool drink (optional). See bronzed Aussie lifesavers and Sydney's best panoramic view at Dover Heights. Return to Sydney via Double Bay, Kings Cross and Mrs Macquaries Point for a final magical viewpoint over the harbor before returning to the city center. Later in the afternoon, take a tour of the Sydney Opera House*; One of the most photographed buildings in the world, known for its unique use of a series of gleaming white sail shaped shells, and is Sydney's best-known landmark. Experience this miracle of architecture and engineering that has become one of the busiest performing arts centers in the world. Working with new, rich audio-visual components, where images are projected onto the fabric of the building our guides will take you on an emotional journey, engrossing you in a story to rival any opera plot with its dramatic twists and turns, and visit at least one of their venues, where some 1,500 performances, from opera to circus, rock and cabaret, are staged each year. *This is an open booking for The Sydney Opera House Tour, and to avoid disappointment, it is possible to call and pre-book The Sydney Opera House up to 24 hours prior.

Day 3 SYDNEY:

An adventurous awaits you with an excursion to the Blue Mountains National Park; one of seven national parks that make up the Greater Blue Mountains World Heritage Area. Our first stop of the day is at Calmsley Hill, an interactive farm, home to Kangaroos, Emus, Wombats and Koalas. Enjoy morning tea and time to wander at leisure. From Calmsley Hill you'll continue to ascend the Blue Mountains via the highway and visit one of a range of stunning outlooks of the Jamison Valley seeing beautiful vistas. The tour continues to Eaglehawk Lookout, a remote lookout points away from the crowds for views of the famous Three Sisters. You'll reach the village of Blackheath and our lunch venue: the Hydro Majestic. Here in this relaxed venue with stunning views, enjoy a 2 course lunch with tea/coffee*. The afternoon is spent visiting a selection of lookouts, including Govetts Leap; of the most famous lookouts in Australia. The magnificent waterfall drops a whopping 590 ft to the base of the cliff, and you'll be transfixed by the sweeping views down the valley to the Grose Wilderness. There will be a brief stop to enjoy a glass of sparkling wine or orange juice at the delightful Mt Tomah Botanic Gardens before returning to your hotel late afternoon. *All diets are catered for (excluding Kosher Meals), and beverages can be purchased from the bar.

Day 4 SYDNEY TO ULURU

After breakfast, meet your driver for a private transfer to the airport and your 3 hour plus flight to Ayers Rock (now called Uluru). Upon arrival, you'll have a private transfer to your hotel. After checking in, the remainder of the day is free for relaxing or exploring on your own. This evening A Night at Field of Light* experience begins with a convenient hotel pick up and transfer to the remote desert location with majestic views of Uluru. With Uluru as the backdrop, guests enjoy canapés and chilled sparkling wine to the sounds of a didgeridoo as the sun slowly sets. As darkness gradually falls and the colored lights of the 50,000 glass spheres come to life, guests enjoy local Indigenous performance, welcoming them to this unique country, before being invited to join their fellow travelers at their dinner table for a special three course bush tucker inspired buffet menu. A knowledgeable guide will provide insights and background to the monumental installation, and guests are invited to immerse themselves and walk through the Field of Light. After dinner guests are welcomed back at the dune viewing area to enjoy a sweet treat, hot chocolate or port, while viewing the illuminated installation in the darkness. * For all Field of Light touring products, long pants and enclosed shoes are strongly recommended for all guests. The experience involves walking up and down a sand dune and a walk-through Field of Light on an unsealed track. For your safety and any possible encounter with Australian wildlife, it's strongly suggested that appropriate clothing is worn. Tripods are not permitted, nor the sale of any images of the installation.

Day 5 ULURU:

Your morning is at your leisure. In the afternoon, meet your guide for the Uluru Sacred Site Tour. Your first stop will be the Kata Tjuta Cultural Center, set among red sand dunes and desert oak trees and providing a peaceful desert setting. The site is located far enough away from the resort lights to provide a clear view of the stars in the southern sky. Your guide will provide more information about this mystical region, and if one is interested, locally made Aboriginal art can be purchased. Later, you'll travel around the base of Uluru to learn about the native flora, fauna and intriguing cultural traditions of traditional owners, the Anangu, and discover an array of fascinating sacred sites. Join your guide for a walk to Mutitjulu Waterhole. You'll explore a number of caves and view Aboriginal rock paintings as your guide interprets their meaning and significance. Then travel to the Uluru sunset viewing area, Sunset Strip and relax with a glass of wine and snacks as the sun sets over the western horizon.
