

DAYS 1-2

Journey to Kootenay National Park for a snowshoe jaunt through the dramatic beauty of Marble Canyon and the Paint Pots, admiring frozen waterfalls and limestone walls • Watch for moose tracks as you trek along Tokumm Creek • Travel the pathways along the Bow River and in the shadow of Tunnel Mountain • In the resort town of Banff, a gondola at the base of Sulphur Mountain whisks us to the summit for uninterrupted, 360-degree vistas of snowcapped peaks and valleys.

Accommodations

Fairmont Banff Springs

(2 nights)

DAY 3

Wearing ice cleats, embark on a memorable trek through Johnston Canyon amid a surreal landscape of icy pillars, turquoise pools and snowy crags to the incredible Cathedral of Ice • Watch ice climbers as they make their way up the frozen falls • Snowshoe along the Continental Divide to Ross Lake • From our immersive lodge in Yoho National Park, take in views of Mt. Burgess and the pristine alpine scenery.

Accommodations

Emerald Lake Lodge

(1 night)

DAYS 4-6

Explore frozen Emerald Lake and its stunning alluvial fan on snowshoes • Pass through dense stands of Engelmann spruce and western red cedar until the trail opens up to marvelous views of Mount Goodsir, the highest in Yoho National Park • Cozy up with a cup of tea in a wingback chair at our elegant mountain retreat, admiring the view of glacier-clad Mount Temple • Ice-skate on the hotel's outdoor rink • Snowshoe through Kootenay's pristine and remote Chickadee Valley, surrounded by imposing glacier-clad peaks • A snowshoe trek at the World Heritage site of Lake Louise offers unforgettable views of Mount Victoria and its towering glaciers.

Accommodations

Post Hotel & Spa

(2 nights)