Day 2

Santiago City Tour - After breakfast, you will meet with the guide at the hotel and transfer to Santa Lucia hill where the tour begins (private service). The Spanish conqueror Pedro de Valdivia, the founder of the city of Santiago, arrived in this place on 12 February 1540. From the Caupolicán terrace we can admire the Hidalgo castle (formerly a Spanish fortress) and enjoy a beautiful view of the central and western districts of the city.

The tour continues to Constitution Square and the palace “La Moneda”, the current seat of the government. We walk to “Plaza de Armas”, the main square, surrounded by the Metropolitan Cathedral, the palace of the Royal High Court, the Main Post Office and other buildings of historical interest. The vehicle takes us to San Cristobal hill. On the way we can see the Central Market, the Mapocho Station, the Forestal Park and the Museum of Fine Arts. Free time on the hill to enjoy a “mote con huesillo”, a typical Chilean drink.

Transfer back to the hotel.

Day 2 b

Half day Buenos Aires City Tour - Today explore Buenos Aires. We visit some of the traditional neighborhoods of the city. At Plaza de Mayo Square we learn about the country's recent history and Evita's favorite balcony, before covering the few blocks that separate us from San Telmo art district with its charming cobbled alleys and Colonial architecture. We time this so we can experience the Antique Market. We'll also take in the elegant turn-of-the-century districts that earned Buenos Aires the sobriquet of the Paris of South America. We walk the city's northern neighborhoods, Palermo with its elegant Parks and Aristocratic Recoleta. Return to the hotel and leisure evening.

Gala Tango Show & Dinner - This evening experience Gala Tango, one the most glamorous tango venues of Buenos Aires. Unique for its architecture and decoration in French-style, and Gourmet a la Carte dinner with wines, this venue provides an elegant Tango Show and warm and refined Folklore as a higher level in folk art. Typical Orchestra formed by a quintet (piano, accordion, two violins and bass) accompanied by two tango singers and four couples dancing, will make of this an memorable evening (private transfers included). Meals: Dinner
