Half Day Chiang Mai Temples and Traditions – Day Tour

Today, be introduced to the culture and history of the city on this great orientation tour. Head to the centre of town with a local guide and visit Tapae Gate, the main entrance to the old walled city. See the crumbling walls and hear about Chiang Mai's rich past. Then hop on a pedal-powered trishaw to explore the old town. Visit the Three Kings Monument on the way to Wat Phra Singh, one of the city's most revered temples. See the various buildings in the compound, admire its ancient Buddha image and hear about its 700-year history. Then continue foot to Wat Chedi Luang, an impressive monument that once housed the country's famed Emerald Buddha. Continue onwards to Chiang Mai's silver making district, one of the city's traditional crafts neighborhoods. Observe silversmiths at work on impressive murals unique to Northern Thailand and admire their skilled craftsmanship. Then take a short drive to Wat Sri Suphan, a unique temple made from ornate silver. Following this introduction to Chiang Mai's heritage, culture and temples, you'll be returned to your hotel.

Chiang Mai Night Discovery with Dinner – Day Tour

Experience a charming evening of discovery in Chiang Mai. With a local guide, enjoy a night out on the town embracing the spiritual traditions and rich heritage that make Chiang Mai so special. Start with a visit to a local temple at sunset, watch as the monks gather for their evening prayers and be soothed by the calm sounds of their chanting. Join local devotees in lighting incense and candles, offerings of good luck and health. After this unforgettable experience, it's time for dinner. Travel through the illuminated city streets to 137 Pillars House, one of Chiang Mai's top tables. Enter the incredible courtyard which was inspired by ancient Chinese dwellings. In this atmospheric setting, enjoy a dinner of exquisite dishes of Thai cuisine. Cap off the evening with a trip to Warorot Market. Busy from morning till late at night, the bustling market is a hub of local life. Browse stalls overflowing with fresh food, flowers, and more and enjoy the lively atmosphere. Sample Thai desserts from a popular street vendor, providing a sweet end to an enchanting evening. Following your tour, you'll be transferred back to your hotel.

Day 6: Full Day Doi Inthanon National Park Trek and Karen Hilltribe

Spend a memorable day at Doi Inthanon National Park as you venture away from the buzz of Chiang Mai's city center, driving into the hills for a day of trekking through the pristine landscapes of Thailand's north. The adventure begins with a hike to a Karen hilltribe village. Meet with the locals to discover their traditional ways of life and unique culture. Learn about their work at a mountainside coffee plantation which produces high-quality beans sold throughout Thailand. Continue to walk deeper into the lush forest, catching glimpses of towering peaks and mountain streams on the way. Stop often for photos or simply to relax and enjoy the spectacular scenery. During the Doi Inthanon hike, keep an eye out for wildlife. The park is teeming with a variety of species including gibbons, deer, wild boar and more than 350 bird species. Conclude the Doi Inthanon hike at one of the most spectacular sites, the Wachiratharn waterfall. Be amazed at the stunning 70 meter fall which crashes into refreshing shallow pools at the base. Rest, relax and enjoy the beautiful surroundings before being returned to your hotel in Chiang Mai late this afternoon.

Evening Street Food Delights by Tuk Tuk – Day Tour

This evening, you will be met at your hotel by your guide. Hop on one of Bangkok's iconic 3-wheel Tuk Tuks, for a night adventure ride to visit the best local eateries around the famous street zone in town. Bangkok is claimed to be the city that never stops eating. Bangkokians usually find themselves eating out at night, especially street food, which the city is also well-known for. Be taken for a ride and make various food stops at local places in which even smells will ignite one's taste buds. From the best kept-secret Guay Tiew Gai, one of the best Pad Thai in town, and Sukiyaki with seafood, all bites will truly be pleasing. All are guaranteed by Michelin Guide under a special award "The Bib Gourmand". Also, to delight more taste buds, have some local desserts along the way. Between the bites, make some nice stomach breaks at the city's old town landmarks. Visit Wat Suthat, one of the famous iconic sights of Bangkok for a night time perspective, and here, be wowed by its illuminated chedis while learning all about the history of the temple. Then, take in the night spot of the Giant Swing right in front of the temple. The night ends with a final stop at a secret, hidden bar located nearby. Sip on a chilled Thai beer or a non-alcoholic drink served with some famous Thai appetizer while enjoying amazing night views of the Giant Swing and the glittering temple. After the tour finishes, be dropped off at the hotel by tuk tuk.

Day 8: Full Day Best of Bangkok Temples and Klongs – Day Tour

Start the morning with a trip to Wat Pho, arguably Bangkok's most enchanting temple. Arrive just as the resident monks gather for their morning chants. Witness this deeply spiritual ritual and gain a better sense of Thailand's Buddhist heritage. After the chants, take a walk around Wat Pho and see the vast collection of religious treasures on display. The tour then continues to the nearby Grand Palace, which has served as the seat of Thailand's revered Royal family for more than two centuries. Take a walk around the vast grounds, stopping in to explore the various temples, throne halls and museums within the compound. Visit the Emerald Buddha, the most revered Buddhist image in Thailand, and hear about its mysterious origins. Take a break for lunch in a riverside restaurant, enjoying delicious Thai food with fabulous views. Then continue onwards to visit Wat Trimitr, on the edge of Chinatown, which houses the world's largest solid gold Buddha. Afterwards take a long-tail boat and move away from the high rises of the city and venture through the quiet canals upon which the city was originally built. Catch glimpses of the olden days, passing by charming neighbourhoods built on the water's edge. Return to the main waterway, the Chao Phraya River, to visit Wat Arun and admire its incredible decoration with ceramic tiles depicting figures of Chinese soldiers and animals. After a full day of exploring Bangkok, you'll be returned to your hotel in the late afternoon.

Day 11: Full Day Angkor Temples and Tonle Sap – Day Tour

This morning, visit Ta Prohm, built in the 12th century the temple that has been left largely in its natural state since its "re-discovery" by French explorers. Surrounded by jungle, its labyrinth of stone hallways is overgrown with the roots and limbs of massive banyan trees, which envelop the stone like tentacles and giant claws. Continue to Preah Khan, "The Sacred Sword", an extensive monastic complex covering over 56 hectares built by the Khmer King Jayavarman VII as a monastery and teaching complex. It is one of a group of temple complexes situated on a small "Baray". Preah Khan is the site of the World Monuments Fund "prime" Asian project a painstaking renovation whilst maintaining its mysterious allures and superb original structure. After lunch at a local restaurant, drive to Tonle Sap Lake, the largest freshwater lake in Southeast Asia and the heart of the Cambodian fishing industry. The Lake is the lifeblood for millions of Khmers living on and around it. Every year during the monsoon season the flow of water from the Mekong River changes direction forcing water back into the Tonle Sap Lake bringing nutrients that fertilize the rice fields and support the breeding of the 200+ fish species and other life. You will board a comfortable boat to see the true way of life in one of the floating villages of the Tonle Sap, here you can see how Khmers and Vietnamese live and work side by side.

Day 12: Evening at Phare The Cambodian Circus

This morning, you will visit Angkor Wat, which is widely regarded as the world's largest religious structure. Its massive stone volume is said to be equivalent to that of Egypt's Cheops pyramid. What sets it apart from other Khmer temples is its Western orientation and its inspiration from 12th-century Hinduism. The symmetrical towers of Angkor Wat have become a stylized feature of the modern Cambodian flag. The temple, which was envisioned by Suryavarman II, took an estimated 30 years to complete and is believed to have been built as a funeral temple for the king. Despite its age, the temple has been continuously occupied by Buddhist monks and has remained remarkably well-preserved. One of the temple's most notable features is the intricate bas-reliefs that adorn its four sides, each of which tells a unique story. Among these, the Churning of the Sea of Milk, located on the eastern wing, is the most celebrated, and your guide will provide a mystical explanation of its significance.

Day 13: Depart Siem Reap
