Day 3

Volcano and Hot Springs

Your day begins with a boat ride, departing the port at 10:45am. You will sail, enjoying the stunning views, until you reach the volcano lava "Nea Kameni". This volcano is extremely famous for the beautiful caldera, the island is also known for the two small islands of black lava positioned at the centre of the basin of Santorini which are, geographically, the youngest islets in the Eastern Mediterranean. Here you have around an hour to walk up to the crater, which is still active. You will then set sail along the lava rock to reach the hot springs of "Palea Kameni". Here you will stop for around 20 minutes (off shore), giving you time to swim towards the hot springs. The yellow waters contain a large amount of sulfur and are characterized for their therapeutic purposes. Today, Agios Nikolaos which is the small cove in Nea Kameni islet is a true health source. After your swim, you will re-board the boat and sail back to the old port in Fira.

Day 6

Private Knossos Palace and Heraklion City Tour

On this private half-day tour, your day begins visiting the largest and most impressive Minoan Palace, the Palace of Knossos. Built almost 4000 years ago in Minoan civilization, the oldest civilization in Europe, it was the most important palace on Crete. The Palace of Knossos was the capital of Minoan Crete and believed to be associated with the Greek mythological labyrinth. It will render you breathless as you wonder over the technology and facilities of that period. It is an enormous structure, covering 150,000 square feet, the size of more than two football fields!

Next, your tour brings you to Heraklion city, the largest city and capital of the island Crete. While the central square is surrounded by cafes, stores, restaurants, the island also has a wonderful history as seen in ancient cathedrals and picturesque old towns. Located in the heart of the city is the Morosini Fountain or the Lion's Fountain, built by Morozini, the Venetian governor in 1628. Enjoy its lively atmosphere and have some free time to explore the city at your leisure before returning back to your hotel.
