Day 5

Temozon to Uayamon

Departure in the morning to visit the Uxmal archaeological site. Uxmal is a very interesting place due to its delicate architecture and its fine masonry. You will appreciate here the "Fortune teller's temple", the highly decorated "Nun's Quadrangle", the "Ball court", the "House of the tortoises" and "The Governor's palace". Uxmal comes from the Mayan "Och Mal" that means "Three constructions".

Afterwards the tour continues to Uayamon. Arrival and accommodation in Junior Suite at Hacienda Uayamon. After the XVI century, this hacienda suffered continuous attacks from the English corsairs. It was sold several times until the 19th century when it became one of the most important haciendas of the Campeche area.
