Enjoy watching the tropical fish surrounding the boat and then get up close and personal with the creatures that inhabit the park's colorful coral gardens for a refreshing snorkel or swim.

Be treated to lunch and musical entertainment before heading ashore Moyenne Island. Half Day Vallee De Mai

Visit Praslin's Vallee de Mai, a UNESCO World Heritage site - an untouched biosphere like none other on Earth.

Here giant palms rustle overhead as you meander through this ancient forest filled with many endemic species of palm and rare fauna, such as the Seychelles Black Parrot, the tiger chameleon and the diminutive Seychelles tree frog.

Vallee de Mai is also home to the Coco de Mer palm; the seed is the largest nut in the world and has been treasured as a collectible and mystical aphrodisiac for centuries. Let our guides unravel the secrets of this magical forest to you.

It was once believed - in the distant lands where these giant seeds would wash ashore - that the Coco de Mer originated from a sacred forest under the sea. Today, we know better, and Vallee de Mai - believed by some to be the original site of the Garden of Eden - is where these magnificent palms grow.
