ITINERARY

DAY 1

Arrive Phoenix, Arizona / Scenic Drive to Grand Canyon National Park

Arrive in Phoenix, Arizona and secure your rental car (arranged independently). Drive 3.5 hours north to the most iconic landmark in the American West, the Grand Canyon.

Enjoy the rest of the day exploring Grand Canyon National Park. We recommend taking an afternoon walk on the Rim Trail. This flat trail follows the South Rim of the Grand Canyon, offering spectacular views and photography opportunities from the top of the Canyon. You can begin hiking from any viewpoint in the Grand Canyon Village or along Hermit Road. The Shuttle Bus makes many stops along the trail. The Rim Trail covers 13 miles from the South Kaibab Trailhead to Hermit's Rest, most of the trail is paved. Hike as much as you like and then catch the shuttle bus back to your starting point.

Overnight in or near the National Park in the best available accommodations. Lodging based on double occupancy.

Full Day Private Tour of Grand Canyon National Park

Meet your private guide inside the park this morning for a tour and hikes around the Canyon rim and into the Canyon on trails little-used by other hikers. Your guide will explain the history, geology, flora and fauna of the Canyon. In the afternoon, your guide will take you to the historic lodges and buildings on the Canyon rim, including the studio of photography pioneers Emery & Ellsworth Kolb, where you will have access to a floor of the studio not open to the public. Enjoy

Shared Helicopter Flightseeing Tour over the Canyon / Scenic Drive to Sedona

After checking-out of your hotel this morning, drive a short distance to the Grand Canyon Airport for a shared 45-minute helicopter flightseeing tour over the Canyon (maximum 7-passengers), fully headset-narrated by your pilot-guide. This is a dramatic and stunning way to see the Canyon.

After your helicopter flight, bid farewell to the Grand Canyon and continue 2 hours south to Sedona. As you enter Flagstaff en route, history buffs will delight in the Route 66 nostalgia, museums and attractions dedicated to Native American culture and old west legacy. The Museum of Northern Arizona, Walnut Canyon National Monument, historic downtown Flagstaff along Route 66, and the 1950s vintage Galaxy Diner are all worth visiting. We recommend stopping in Oak Creek Canyon at Indian Gardens Cafe, a local favorite, for coffee or lunch.

The sandstone buttes that frame Sedona create a stunning red rock backdrop, and contain hundreds of miles of hiking and biking trails. The afternoon is yours to explore the historic uptown area, lined with art galleries, souvenir shops and restaurants. We recommend cooling off with some homemade ice cream from the Black Cow Cafe, a local favorite.

Overnight in the best available accommodations. Lodging based on double occupancy.

Hang on as your Jeep navigates the rocky trail, climbing to the top of a red rock lookout point and then descending the Road of No Return. Take a break from the adrenaline rush for a picnic lunch in a beautiful setting, where your guide will teach you about the flora, fauna, geology and history of Sedona.
