

Day 1 Vancouver to Nimmo Bay | Flights

Depart Vancouver today for a seventy-minute scenic flight over Canada's famed inside passage to Port Hardy. Upon arrival, meet your Nimmo Bay representative and board your floatplane bound for Nimmo Bay Wilderness Resort. With the afternoon at leisure, you may wish to hike the old growth Great Bear Rainforest in search of wildlife, kayak the Broughton Archipelago among salmon and sea lions, or soak in a cedar hot tub beneath a towering waterfall. (Dinner Included today)

Days 2 or 3 Nimmo Bay Resort | Activities

Explore Nimmo Bay with its endless outdoor activities, designed for every skill level. Listed among the included activities are paddle boarding (look for bears along the shoreline!), fly fishing lessons or a boat tour around the nearby inlets (with a gourmet picnic on a deserted beach of course!). Want more? How about yoga classes on the dock, guided whale-watching excursions, a visit to the Kingcome First Nations Village, and plenty of beachcombing. Accommodations are at Nimmo Bay Wilderness Resort in a Cabin. (Breakfast, picnic lunch & dinner included today)

Day 3 or 4 Nimmo Bay Resort | Coastal Safari

Explore the magnificent ocean wilderness of coastal British Columbia by boat on this full-day excursion. Enjoy guided activities like sightseeing, coastal beach visits, waterfall tours, bear viewing, whale watching, destination kayaking and paddle boarding, saltwater fishing, picnic lunches and tours of local sites, museums and research stations. The coast is your oyster. (Breakfast, picnic lunch & dinner included today)

Day 4 or 5 Nimmo Bay Resort to Vancouver | Flights

Today it's time to say goodbye to Nimmo Bay as you board the floatplane for the short scenic flight from Nimmo Bay Wilderness Resort to Port Hardy. From Port Hardy you will board your flight to the South Terminal of the Vancouver Airport. (Breakfast included today)
