

Sample Itinerary:

Day 1

Drive/Transfer from Dublin Airport, golf at Portmarnock, and after your round transfer to Newcastle for dinner at the hotel, overlooking Royal County Down Golf Club.

Day 2

Play golf at the iconic Royal County Down, consistently ranked in the top 5 courses in the world, enjoy an afternoon by the sea before dining at Percy French restaurant or Mourne Seafood Bar.

Day 3

Drive/Transfer from Newcastle to Ardglass, this challenging links is one of the world's oldest golf courses, dramatically hugging the Irish sea on the opening 5 holes. Post round, continue on to Belfast, and dine at Michelin star OX restaurant.

Day 4

Drive/Transfer to Royal Portrush, play golf at the Open rota course, which last hosted the event in 2019. Return to Belfast and explore the Titanic Belfast museum before dinner.

Day 5

Drive/Transfer to golf at Castlerock's Mussenden course, which will not disappoint. After your round visit Giant's Causeway, and explore the unique rock formations which create a surreal cliff-top experience. Return to Belfast and enjoy dinner at James St restaurant grill.

Day 6

Your final round will be the perfect way to finish, Portstewart is a relatively hidden gem, perched right on the beach, with one of the most dramatic opening holes in golf. In the evening take a tour at the Old Bushmills Distillery, try a tippie before returning to Belfast for your final evening.

Day 7

Breakfast at hotel, transfer/drive to Airport