Day 2

Private Paris Highlights Plus Eiffel Tower and Cruise

This tour features a 4-hour private city tour, a visit to the 3rd floor of the Eiffel Tower, the highest floor accessible to the public with breathtaking views of the capital, plus a 1-hour boat trip along the Seine. This comprehensive tour is the ideal way to discover Paris for the first time.

On your private city tour, your driver will pick you up at your hotel and together you will discover the most important monuments and symbols of Paris such as the Place Vendome, the Place de l'Opera Garnier, the Musee du Louvre, the Hotel de Ville, Notre Dame de Paris cathedral, the Pantheon, the Musee d'Orsay, the Place de la Concorde, the Champs Elysees, the Arc de Triomphe and Les Invalides.

On your visit to the Eiffel Tower, you can start your ascent by discovering the 1st floor, and taking the elevator or the stairs. You can then enjoy an exceptional panoramic view of Paris and the Champ de Mars, located at the foot of the Eiffel Tower. You will also discover the monument's unique transparent architecture. Housed 57 meters above the ground, you will be breathless when stepping on the spectacular glass floor that covers the entire level. Then, on foot or by elevator, you will continue your visit to the 2nd level for even more experiences. You will admire the unique 360 degrees views in front of you. At nearly 115 meters high, you can recognize the highest landmarks of the capital, such as the Sacre-Coeur on the top of Montmartre hill, the Invalides with its golden dome, the Montparnasse Tower, the Arc de Triomphe overlooking the beautiful avenue des Champs Elysees. Finally, you will reach the top 3rd floor for a sensational view of all of Paris and even beyond. Located 276 meters above the ground, you will be able to recognize other famous monuments of Paris such as the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, the great Arch de la Défense, or the historic bridges over the Seine. You can also discover the reconstruction of Gustave Eiffel's office, the famous panoramic orientation panels, or a model of the summit as it was in 1899.

This program also includes a ticket on a boat ride on the Seine River. Step aboard at the foot of the Eiffel Tower as a crew welcomes you for an hour-long cruise along the Seine.

Day 3

Guided Tour of the Louvre Museum

Your priority access ticket will allow you to follow your guide straight into the world's largest museum. No need to stand in line! This guided tour offers the perfect opportunity to learn about the museum's huge collection and its greatest works of art, such as the Mona Lisa, the Venus de Milo, and the Coronation of Napoleon.

Before it became a museum in 1793, the Louvre had long been one of the principle palaces of the Kings of France. Located right in the heart of Paris, the Louvre's galleries stretch for 786,000 square feet. It is home to the world's largest collection of art works, spanning more than 7,000 years from ancient civilizations to the 19th Century. The museum's collections are split into eight different departments: Egyptian antiquities, Greek, Etruscan & Roman antiquities, Near Eastern antiquities, Islamic art, Paintings, Sculptures, Decorative Arts, and Prints & Drawings.

Spend time discovering these collections with your guide, who will show you some of the museum's most famous works and tell you about the stories that lie behind them. Marvel at the Mona Lisa, painted by Leonardo da Vinci in 1506, one of the most famous female portraits in the world; the Venus de Milo, a celebrated Greek sculpture dating from 100 BC depicting the goddess Aphrodite; or the giant 33-foot-long painting of the Coronation of Napoleon, painted in 1807 by Jacques-Louis David to commemorate the crowning of Napoleon Bonaparte in Notre Dame Cathedral.

After your guided tour, spend time exploring other parts of the museum at your own pace.

Day 4

Market Food Tour in the 17th

Explore one of the lesser-known areas in Paris, the 17th arrondissement. Located in the northeast of the city, this district is characterized by typical Haussmannian architecture, authentic Parisian neighborhoods and of course, a variety of markets offering local produce, goods and fine wines. On this private tour, with an expert tour guide, you will discover this neighborhood including a covered market offering the freshest food and a selection of favorite gourmet shops and products. Meet talented food artisans, taste cheeses, breads and other treats and be immersed in the Parisian local joie de vivre. Food tastings are included!

Duration 2 Hours

Moulin Rouge - Show and Dinner (Toulouse-Lautrec Menu)

The Moulin Rouge is a cabaret in Paris, located close to Montmartre in the Pigalle district. With its trademark red windmill on its roof, it is best known for its entertaining can-can dance and dazzling, spectacular performances.

The "Feerie" show consists of a troupe of 80 artists, including 60 dancers, 1000 traditional sumptuous costumes of feathers, rhinestones and sequins, and the amazing sets in shimmering colors and performances to original music recorded by 80 musicians and 60 chorus singers.

Originally opened in 1889, the Moulin Rouge is a testament to an era that celebrated French liberation, change, artistic creation and joyful fantasy. It helped make famous the singers Mistinguett, Edith Piaf and the painter Toulouse-Lautrec. Today, it continues to inspire artists and audiences world-wide.
