6 Days Premiere Hotels

DAYS 1-2

Welcome to Scotland, a hiker's paradise! | Walk through the wild and remote West Highlands in stunning Shieldaig, a place of almost mythical proportions | Wild pines and the blue waters of Loch Torridon come into view | Hike up a mountain glen to spot the hidden lake behind the famous massif Beinn Eighe | Take some time to explore our castle hotel's 58 acres of pristine parkland.

Accommodations

Torridon Hotel

Wester Ross

Formerly a grand shooting lodge built by the Earl of Lovelace in 1887, this intimate castle hotel is an elegant oasis surrounded by nearly 60 acres of parkland at the end of a sea loch, offering gracious hospitality, fine dining and an impressive whisky bar.

DAYS 3-4

Follow an old hunters' tracking route toward Loch an Eòin, with the summit of Maol Chean-dearg reflecting in its waters | Hike a portion of the 200-mile-long, magnificently untamed Cape Wrath Trail | Travel to the Isle of Skye and enjoy views of the Cuillin Mountains and Portree Bay | On the peninsula of Trotternish, admire the dramatic ridgeline marked by plunging cliffs, green plateaus and rocky pinnacles | Pass craggy peaks and climb along Quiraing, with views of the sea and rugged coastal landscape | Settle in for a fine local meal and musical performance.

Accommodations

Cuillin Hills Hotel

Isle of Skye

Contemporary Scottish styling and majestic views of Portree Bay and the Cuillin Mountain range have transformed this early 19th-century hunting lodge into a peaceful nature retreat.

DAYS 5-6

Walk along emerald hills on Loch Ness, made famous by the creature of Scottish folklore affectionately known as Nessie | Be greeted by a wide open vista of the Isle of Rum | Sparkling lochs and cascading waterfalls abound | Rest up at our riverside hotel and stroll across a footbridge to a lush island | Tour the romantic fairy-tale 15th-century Cawdor Castle and wander through its lovely gardens.

Accommodations

Ness Walk Hotel

Inverness

Surrounded by trees and known for exceptional service, Ness Walk Hotel is a lovingly restored 19th-century house located next to the River Ness and only minutes from the town center.
