

DAY 1

Discover the East Neuk region of the Fife Peninsula, where maritime history runs deep in quaint fishing villages and harbors | Sample local fare at a country estate that has been in the Erskine family since the 17th century | Savor views of the wild coastline and world-famous St Andrews Old Course and taste the award-winning fare at our elegant hotel.

Accommodations

Old Course Hotel

St Andrews

One of Scotland's leading hotels, the refined and elegant Old Course overlooks West Sands Beach and St Andrews's world-famous golf course. (pool, spa)

DAYS 2-3

E-bike through the pastoral Angus countryside, passing the world's largest hedge | Take in the heathered moors and wooded glens, marveling at the soaring bens of Perthshire | Stop in historic Dunkeld and explore the summer home of Beatrix Potter | Fans of the show Outlander may recognize some of the dramatic Highland landscapes we pass in the shadow of Schiehallion mountain | Refined dining and a luxurious spa await at our loch-side hotel in beautiful Pitlochry | Perhaps savor a dram of single-malt Scotch before retiring to your well-appointed room.

Accommodations

Fonab Castle Hotel & Spa

Pitlochry

A loch-side Highland castle tucked into the Tummel Valley, offering award-winning fine dining and a luxurious spa. (pool, spa)

DAYS 4-6

Embark on a two-wheeled journey through the heart of the Scottish Highlands, e-biking through heather-covered countryside, emerald green glens and ancient pine forests | Slow down over a "cuppa" and browse the quaint shops of the Wee House of Glenshee | Enjoy a relaxed spin along the majestic River Dee and ride through lovely pine forests with mountain vistas and rich history | This area in Aberdeenshire was so loved by Queen Victoria that Balmoral Castle became the Scottish summer

residence of the British royal family | Discover Braemar and its castles on an riverside architectural tour and see the cottage where Robert Louis Stevenson wrote part of Treasure Island | Explore the Braemar Highland Games Centre, home of the historic Highland sporting event, the Braemar Gathering | Retreat to our elegant abode in the woodsy slopes of Cairngorms National Park | Edinburgh is a great place to extend your vacation.

Accommodations

Balmoral Arms

Ballater

Nature, heritage and style come together in this luxurious getaway in the Cairngorms National Park, nearby the River Dee and Balmoral Castle, the Scottish holiday home of the British Royal Family. (spa)