DAYS 4 to 7

Fiji at Leisure

The days are free to relax and enjoy Fiji! Set on a brilliant white sand beach with crystal clear lagoons, Warwick Fiji is located on Fiji's famous Coral Coast, an 80km /50mi stretch of Fiji's finest beaches, and covers the spectacular ocean side drive between Nadi and Suva. The five star resort offers views overlooking tropical gardens and the blue Pacific Ocean. Expansive facilities sit amongst 28 acres of tropical gardens with five restaurants, six bars including a swim-up bar, two swimming pools, a kids club, two tennis courts, two squash courts, a fully air conditioned gym, a luxurious Spa with hydrotherapy treatment pools. A large variety of complimentary activities is included with any stay: all non-motorized water activities (paddle boarding, kayaking and snorkeling) tennis, squash, badminton, racquetball, basketball, bike hire, snorkeling lessons, bird watching tours and Fijian medicinal walks. The Resort is currently undertaking coral gardening and clamshell programs overlooked by an in-house Marine Biologist and invites guests to participate in these remarkable environmental projects. Tours to three different local village communities and a magnificent waterfall up the valley are organized or a glass bottom boat tour of the outer reef and an exciting night snorkel for the more adventurous. The resort offers nightly entertainment including traditional fire-walking, Fijian traditional dances known as the meke and live bands. Surrounded by local villages and other local attractions, Warwick Fiji truly offers an authentic and complete Fiji holiday.

DAY 12

Depart Sydney for Auckland

You will be transferred to the airport today for your flight to Auckland. On arrival you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The remainder of the day is at leisure.

Auckland, the largest city in New Zealand on the North Island, is known as the "City of Sails" due to its attractive harbour, home to thousands of sailing boats. It occupies a narrow isthmus between the harbour and the sea. It also has the largest Polynesian population of any city in the world.

This modern city combines urban with beautiful beaches, hiking trails, islands and a rugged West Coast. For amazing views of the city, visit the Skytower, the tallest building in the Southern Hemisphere or Mount Eden, an extinct volcano crater and the highest point in Auckland. Both have 360 degree panoramic views of the city and surrounding area.

Auckland offers excellent shopping mainly on Queen Street as do several nearby neighbourhoods such as Newmarket and Ponsonby, the latter a good place to stroll day or night for its cafes and nightlife.
