Day 2 SEOUL:

After breakfast, meet with your private guide and driver for an extensive tour of Seoul! Your tour of Seoul begins with pickup at your and then you will head to the Gyeongbokgung Palace, originally built in the 14th century and located in the northern part of Seoul. It is the largest palace of the Five Grand Palaces of the Joseon Dynasty. and often considered the most beautiful. Continue to Bukchon Hanok Village, home to hundreds of traditional houses, called hanok, that date back to the Joseon Dynasty. Operating essentially as a well preserved historic village and open air museum, this village allows visitors to immerse themselves in Korea's past. After Bukchon Hanok Village, You will move on to the Gilsangsa Temple. Although the temple has a relatively short history, it is conveniently located in the heart of Seoul. The temple serves as a downtown cultural space by offering a variety of Buddhist programs. Heading south you will visit the Insa dong neighborhood, which has been situated at the heart of the nation's capital for over 600 years and was at the center of culture during the Joseon Dynasty. Over forty percent of the nation's antique stores are clustered in the Insa dong area, and they sell more valuable antiques compared to any other places in Korea. Among the antiques sold there are old pictures, pottery, hand made wooden containers, and jewelry. The Gwangjang Market is the nation's first market and continues to thrive as a popular tourist destination today. The second floor of the market provides all of your silk, satin, and linen bed sheet stores, while the main floor is renowned for its food stalls. It is a genuine market eating experience with ajummas (Korean ladies) selling mungbean pancakes, often served with alcoholic drinks such as soju or makkeolli, and mayak gimbap, a dish similar to Japanese rolled sushi. Finally you'll head to the Han River, where you'll board a ferry for a river cruise. The cruise follows the river which flows through the city and offers spectacular views of the metropolis and its tourist spots such as the Jeoldusan Park, the 63 City Building, N Seoul Tower, Jamsil's Multi Sports Complex, and so much more. After the river cruise ends, the rest of the evening is at your leisure.

After breakfast, you will be picked up at your hotel by your guide and escorted to the UN Memorial Cemetery, established in 1951 to honor the fallen soldiers who gave their lives in the Korean War. Next, head for the Gamcheon Culture Village, an iconic part of Busan known for its houses painted in shining shades of blue. Formed by houses built in staircase fashion on the foothills of a coastal mountain, this village has earned the nickname of Machu Picchu of Busan. The many alleys cutting through this community are vibrantly decorated with murals and sculptures created by the residents. Continue on to Taejongdae. This coastal park is classic Busan and is especially famous for its magnificent cliff face. The highest peak of these cliffs is at 820 feet and there are dense pine forests that cover the area. Fun fact in 2006, 155 dinosaur footprint fossils were found here! Next, visit Gukje Market. Formed in the aftermath of the Korean War, Gukje Market has served countless customers over 60 years and is one of Korea's largest markets. Gukje is a labyrinth of alleyways crowded with stalls holding a variety of goods. The last stop will be Jagalchi Fish Market, Korea's largest seafood market where you can eat fresh raw fish. This market is a perfect representation of Busan's love affair with seafood and is famous throughout the country.

Day 8 JEJU ISLAND:

After breakfast, meet your guide and driver for today as you embark on a tour of Jeju Island. Start the day's tour with a visit to Manjanggul Lava Tube, one of the world's finest lava tunnels and a UNESCO Natural Heritage Site. Manjanggul Cave has a variety of interesting structures inside, including 27 inch lava stalagmites and the lava tube tunnels themselves. The cave is one of the finest lava tunnels in the world and is designated a natural monument. Afterwards, visit the Jeju Haenyeo Museum, established to introduce the unique activities and culture of Jejudo's haenyeo female divers. The Jeju Haenyeo Museum showcases various exhibits of haenyeo female divers and their activities, who are a symbol of Jeju Islands pioneering spirit. The Haenyeo women served as the backbone of Jeju's early economy, seaweed, abalone, or other shellfish from the sea. The tour continues to Seongsan Ilchulbong Peak. This mountain rose from under the sea in a volcanic eruption over 100,000 years ago. Located on the eastern end of Jeju Island, there is a huge crater at the top of Seongsan Ilchulbong Peak. The crater is about 2000 feet in diameter and 300 feet high. With the 99 sharp rocks surrounding the crater, it appears like a gigantic crown from above. Next is Seopjikoji, located at the end of the eastern shore of Jeju Island. Seopji is the old name for the area, and koji is the Jeju dialect meaning a sudden bump on land. On Koji hill, which is wide and flat, there stands a stone bongsudae, a stone tower used as a communications system for 500 years to notify the central government of urgent military information. Additionally, this scenic and historic area was the filming site of several Korean TV dramas. Finally, finish the tour by heading to Seongup Folk Village, where Korea's traditional thatched houses, Confucian temple, mill, fortress, and tombstones have been preserved. Here, you'll also hear Jeju folk songs and other folk entertainment, sample local food and hear the local Jeju dialect. Return to your hotel where the rest of the day is at your leisure.
