

1 | MONTRÉAL, QC

Your day starts with a pickup from Montréal International Airport. From here, your driver will take you to Old Montréal – your home base for the next two nights. After lunch at your leisure, spend the afternoon wandering Old Town with a guide, seeing iconic attractions and hearing tales of this storied city. After dinner, venture back into the quaint streets and see dazzling projections light up the city's buildings. Accommodations are at the Hotel William Gray in a Deluxe King with Balcony Suite.

2 | MONTRÉAL, QC

Today, feel free to roam the city according to your whims. After lunch (or brunch, a favourite among the locals), embark on a street art tour, where you'll discover hidden murals and graffiti art. Along the way, stop for samples at a micro coffee roastery, goat cheese maker, and the open-air Jean-Talon Market. Accommodations are at the Hotel William Gray in a Deluxe King with Balcony Suite.

3 | LAC SACACOMIE, QC

This morning, after a private transfer to the Old Port of Montréal, you'll board a seaplane to Lac Sacacomie, an isolated oasis surrounded by enchanting forest. You'll have the afternoon free to explore your accommodations and surrounding wilderness, complete with three-course lunch. Afterward, you'll head to the bears and beavers observation area for a private visit. Accommodations are at the Hotel Sacacomie in an Executive Suite.

4 | LAC SACACOMIE, QC

Today, there are plenty of options to explore nature. Adventurers can kayak to the middle of the lake, or hike under leafy forest canopies. Later, you'll participate in a Trapper Trek, following a historic trapper's trail and trying your hand at Tomahawk throwing and archery. Afterward, you'll enjoy a trapper's lunch of homemade stew, beer and herb tea around a wood-burning fire pit. Next, hop aboard a pontoon for a private journey on the lake, including wine and cheese. In the evening, tuck into a four-course dinner inspired by seasonal ingredients. Accommodations are at the Hotel Sacacomie in an Executive Suite.

5 | MAURICIE, LA SEIGNEURIE DU TRITON

Today, board a seaplane to Seigneurie du Triton. Built in the 1800s, the eco-lodge has hosted dignitaries like Winston Churchill and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Activities abound, including canoeing and paddleboarding, guided hikes and cross-country biking, mushroom or berry picking, viewing resident black bears, archery, and a guided visit to the Triton Station. In the evening, you'll meet the lodge's owner at an intimate reception, including a tasting of Canadian wines accompanied by house-made smoked and tartar specialties. Then, it's time for a six-course gourmet dinner, followed by a torchlight canoe ride on the lake, where you can look to the sky and observe the galaxies. Accommodations are at Seigneurie du Triton in a Suite.

6 | MAURICIE, LA SEIGNEURIE DU TRITON

This morning, head out with a private guide for a fly-fishing excursion complete with BBQ shore lunch. After feasting by the lake, you can continue angling or return to the lodge for alternative activities. In the evening, enjoy cocktails and light bites on a secluded lakeshore, then head back to the property for another tantalizing feast. Afterward, unwind around a campfire as you swap stories and learn about the fur animals of Canada. Accommodations are at Seigneurie du Triton in a Suite.

7 | QUEBEC CITY, QC

This morning, you'll embark on an early-bird expedition to a moose habitat, where you'll seek the iconic Canadian mammals. Next, take a scenic seaplane excursion to Lac Nairne, a picturesque lake ringed by beaches of soft sand. From here, your driver will take you to Baie St. Catherine for a thrilling whale watching experience. Then, it's time for a peaceful drive along the Charlevoix coastline to Quebec City. Accommodations are at Auberge St-Antoine in a Luxe Terrace Room.

8 | QUEBEC CITY, QC

The next day is spent at the artisanal hub of Île d'Orléans, where you'll sample handcrafted delicacies and visiting local artisans. Afterward, your driver will take you to a beautiful vineyard for dessert and local wine. Then, you're free to follow your whims as you spend the evening exploring Quebec City. Accommodations are at the Auberge St-Antoine in a Luxe Terrace Room.

9 | QUEBEC CITY, QC

Today, your driver will take you to Jean Lesage International Airport for your trip back home. Safe travels!
