

DAYS 1-3

Discover the ghost town of Kayaköy | Hike through a pine forest with sweeping views of the turquoise sea to glorious Ölüdeniz Beach, also known as the Blue Lagoon, keeping an eye out for paragliders who flock here | Enjoy lunch aboard our private boat as we sail to Göcek, stopping for a swim in a tranquil inlet along the way | Today is all about those beach vibes, with picturesque hiking options in between | Sail to Göbün Bay, where we disembark for a trek along narrow walking paths into the highlands of the Kapıdağ Peninsula | Examine ancient Lycian ruins on a hilltop with stunning ocean views | Continue on foot to the home of a local family, who shares an insider's view of life—and a cup of sage tea—in Turkey's remote high valleys | As you descend to stunning Cleopatra's Bay, the partially submerged remains of a hammam allegedly used by the Egyptian queen is revealed | A lunch of Turkish mezes (shared plates) awaits onboard our gulet | Spend the afternoon on the boat swimming and sunning or opt for a coastline hike to lovely Sarsala Bay | Savor dinner on your own in charming Göcek.

Accommodations

D-Resort Göcek

Göcek

This serene stylish property in a charming seaside town boasts its own white sand beach, marina and sunbathing deck, which hug the shallows of the inviting bay. Small Luxury Hotels of the World member (pool, spa)

DAYS 4-6

Kayak through a protected estuary out to a remote beach | Visit the well-preserved Roman theater and remains of Lycian and Carian tombs in the Ancient City of Kaunos, a UNESCO World Heritage site | Our luxurious retreat welcomes you with views of the blue-green Aegean Sea | Enjoy some downtime in your personal pavilion or a dip in your cottage's private pool | Hike with our guide up into the hills around Bodrum to the 3,000-year-old Pedasa ruins | Learn about traditional weaving techniques during a Turkish carpet demo at the resort | Our gulet takes us to Kara Ada (Black Island), known for its healing mineral springs | Hike up to the ruins of a Crusader fort, admiring the spectacular views as you explore | Indulge in a final lunch on the water and relaxing swim in a beautiful bay before returning to Bodrum.

Accommodations

Amanruya

Bodrum

Wrap yourself in sumptuous tranquility at this inviting oasis set amid olive and cypress trees, featuring a secret light-filled library, winding walking paths and private pavilions, each with pool and lounging pergola. (pool, spa)