

DAY 1: BOZEMAN, MONTANA / MAMMOTH HOT SPRINGS

---

Travel from Bozeman, Montana to Yellowstone National Park, following the Yellowstone River through magnificent valleys on the lookout for bald eagles, mule deer, antelope and bighorn sheep. At Mammoth Hot Springs, stroll along the steaming, colorful mineral-spring terraces outlined in the snow. Gather this evening for a private welcome reception and dinner

Meals Included: Dinner

Accommodations: Mammoth Hot Springs Hotel

DAY 2: MAMMOTH HOT SPRINGS / LAMAR VALLEY

---

Head to the open, rolling meadows and wide vistas of the Lamar Valley, where wolves were first reintroduced to Yellowstone in 1995. Using a spotting scope, search among herds of elk and bison for coyotes, eagles and the elusive wolf. An Emmy Award-winning wildlife cinematographer will join you this evening—schedule permitting—to discuss his career shooting films about wolves and other wildlife for National Geographic.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodations: Mammoth Hot Springs Hotel

DAY 3: GRAND CANYON OF THE YELLOWSTONE / OLD FAITHFUL

---

Travel by private snow coach to the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, where winter adds extra magic to an already dramatic landscape. Walk to the rim of the spectacular gorge to see its thundering waterfall and the ice arch that forms from the spray. Continue to Old Faithful to explore a dramatic landscape of erupting geysers, frozen waterfalls and gem-colored mineral pools. Keep an eye out for wildlife—including bison, which often stand among the pools for warmth.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodations: Old Faithful Snow Lodge

DAY 4: OLD FAITHFUL / UPPER GEYSER BASIN

---

After breakfast, hit the trails on an optional snowshoe or cross-country ski excursion. This afternoon, head to the Upper Geyser Basin to wander amid the bubbling mud pots and fumaroles, discovering the geological forces behind Yellowstone. After dark, step outside to admire the incredible canopy of stars in one of the world's best constellation-viewing spots.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodations: Old Faithful Snow Lodge

DAY 5: GARDINER / PARADISE VALLEY, MONTANA

---

Head north to the whimsical Fountain Paint Pots, where you'll stop to photograph the vibrant colors and mesmerizing shapes of this geological phenomenon. Leave the park via the North Yellowstone gate and travel through the picturesque countryside of Gardiner and Paradise Valley, Montana. This evening, gather at the hotel to share your best photos and commemorate your winter adventure with a farewell dinner.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodations: Sage Lodge

DAY 6: BOZEMAN

---

Following breakfast, transfer to Bozeman Yellowstone International Airport (BZN) to catch your flight home.

Meals Included: Breakfast